Steve Stricker, 32-32 – 64 (-8)

- The 8-under 64 is Stricker's lowest first round on PGA TOUR Champions. His previous low was his 6-under 66 at last year's American Family Insurance Championship.
- Stricker's first-round scoring averages this season:
 - PGA TOUR (8 individual starts): 68.13
 - PGA TOUR Champions (5 individual starts): 66.60
 - Cumulative (13 rounds): 67.54
- This is the first time Stricker has led after the first round on PGA TOUR Champions. On the PGA TOUR, he has been a first-round leader/co-leader four times, the most recent being at the 2011 PGA Championship, and he is 2-for-4 in converting those leads into victories.
- This was Stricker's 30th consecutive round under par on PGA TOUR Champions, the fourth-longest streak in Tour history. The longest was Bernhard Langer's streak of 36 in 2016-17.
- This year on PGA TOUR Champions, he won in back-to-back starts at the Colouard Classic and the Rapiscan Systems Classic, and he has top-five finishes in all five of his starts. Most recently, he finished T2 at the Regions Tradition and he is currently No. 4 in the Charles Schwab Cup.

First-Round Lead Notes

- This season, a first-round leader/co-leader has won four out of 12 tournaments. Most recently, Miguel Angel Jimenez converted his first-round lead into victory at the Regions Tradition.
- A first-round leader/co-leader has not won the American Family Insurance Championship. Last year, Paul Broadhurst led by two after a first-round 63, and he went on to finish fifth. Eventual winner Fred Couples was T6 after opening with a 67.

Brad Bryant, 34-31 – 65 (-7)

- In just his second start of the season, Bryant carded an opening-round 7-under-par 65 to sit in second place after his opening round at the American Family Insurance Championship. This is his lowest 18-hole score since the final round of the 2016 3M Championship and best first-round exit since co-leading the 2015 Encompass Championship after the first day.
- His only other appearance on PGA TOUR Champions this season was at the Boca Raton Championship where he opened with an even-par 72 followed by a 69-74 to finish T44.
- On PGA TOUR Champions, the 63-year-old has four wins, two each in his 2006 and 2007 seasons, 11 runner up finishes and ten third-places finishes.
- This is Bryant's second appearance at the American Family Insurance Championship, finishing T52 in the tournament's inaugural year (2016).

Colin Montgomerie, 33-34 – 67 (-5)

- Montgomerie hit all 13 fairways and all 18 greens en route to a bogey-free 67, six shots better than his previous best score at University Ridge. In his tournament debut last year, Montgomerie finished 5-over (74-73-74) and tied for 68th, his worst finish in 101 starts on PGA TOUR Champions.
- Prior to his T6 at the KitchenAid Senior PGA Championship, Montgomerie had failed to post a top-20 finish in his previous five individual starts.
- He has two top-10s this season, including a runner-up at the Mitsubishi Electric Championship at Hualalai, and he is No. 15 in the Charles Schwab Cup.

John Daly, 33-34 – 67 (-5)

- Daly hit 12 of 13 fairways and 16 of 18 greens in regulation en route to his first-round 67, tied for his best opening round this season.
- A knee injury has forced Daly to withdraw from his last three tournaments: Insperty Invitational, Regions Tradition and the FedEx St. Jude Classic.
- He has two top-10s in seven starts this season, and he's No. 63 in the Charles Schwab Cup.

Steve Flesch, 31-36 – 67 (-5)

- Flesch opened the front nine with five birdies en route to a 5-under-par 67 for his lowest 18-hole score recorded since winning the 2018 Mitsubishi Electric Classic.
- This is Flesch's second appearance at the American Family Insurance Championship, last year finishing T51 at 1-under-par 215.
- The 51-year-old has nine starts this season on PGA TOUR Champions, including his first victory and four top-25 finishes, and he is No. 19 in the Charles Schwab Cup.

Other Notes
