Universities Space Research Association

Presents a Symposium on

Space Exploration:
Achievements of the Past 50 Years and Ambitions for the Future

April 23, 2019 | 1 p.m – 5 p.m.
National Academy of Sciences Building
2101 Constitution Avenue, NW
Washington D.C. 20418

Welcome and Introductory Remarks

- WILLIAM F. BALLHAUS JR., Chair, USRA Board of Trustees
- JEFFREY A. ISAACSON, USRA President and CEO

Speakers

- MARCIA MCNUTT, President, National Academy of Sciences
- SCOTT PACE, Executive Secretary, National Space Council
- JAN WÖRNER, ESA Director General
- CHRISTINE DARDEN, former NASA mathematician and aeronautical engineer
- HARRISON H. SCHMITT, former U.S. Senator and Apollo 17 Astronaut
- DAVID CUMMINGS, USRA Senior Advisor and Historian

Closing Remarks

- DANIEL N. BAKER, Chair, USRA Council of Institutions

Reception in the Great Hall following the Symposium

Attendance is by invitation only.
Please contact Suraiya Farukhi, sfarukhi@usra.edu.