

Your community
counts on you.
Count on us.

Sourcwell for Law Enforcement

Access programs and services to support you as you fulfill your public service mission.

Professional Development & Training

Find courses and training for you and your staff to help you succeed. Browse upcoming courses & events >

Reimbursement Programs

Hire an intern or train your staff in emergency medical response and we'll reimburse part (or all) of your expenses. Access program documents >

Funding

Get financial support for projects that make your community better. Explore funding opportunities >

Shared Equipment

Borrow equipment that's been purchased by area communities with help from Sourcwell Impact Funding dollars. See available equipment >

Cooperative Purchasing

Save time and money on the equipment and services you need. Earn 1% cash back through our Regional Rebate program. See awarded suppliers in public safety >

Access these programs through our partners:

Driving training at the Minnesota Highway Safety & Research Center (MHSRC)

Access the MHSRC's training facilities and programs at no cost. Courses and topics available to public works, law, and more. Schedule your training with MHSRC >

PATROL through the League of Minnesota Cities Insurance Trust

Earn Peace Officer Standards and Training (POST) credits anytime, anywhere. Access PATROL for free >

Institute for Credible Leadership Development (ICLD) through the Minnesota Sheriff's Association

An online learning system for law enforcement. Study leadership, ethics, communication, and earn POST credits. Register for free >

Sourcwell is your local service cooperative, a self-funded government organization charged with offering programs to support student and community success in our region. Our ability to support and reinvest in our local communities is made possible through a national cooperative purchasing program.

Sourcwell 